Media release

21 June, 2010

Submissions being made public

The Inquiry into the Child Protection System in the Northern Territory will start loading public submissions onto the Inquiry's website this week.

The first submissions to be made public will be those from Northern Territory Government Departments, including the Department of Health and Families.

Other submissions will be added to the website over the next few weeks as they are checked by Inquiry staff.

It is not yet known how many of the 150 written submission will be made public, however, guidelines which the Board of Inquiry will apply will be published on the website.

The Inquiry will now report on 17 September after receiving an extension from the Chief Minister.
