

Table of Contents

VOLUME 1

Foreword	1
Acknowledgements	5
Acronyms and Terminology	8
Acronyms	8
Terminology	13
Executive Summary	14
Introduction	14
Background to the Inquiry	15
The Inquiry Process.....	16
Findings and Recommendations	17
Introduction	17
Terms of Reference	18
Recommendations of the Inquiry	26
Structure of the Report	48
CHAPTER 1: Introduction	53
Terms of Reference	54
Broader context of the Inquiry	56
Approach and methodology	57
Principles.....	61
Principles for a system that cares for and protects its children	63
Implementation principles.....	65
CHAPTER 2: Context of service delivery in the Northern Territory	69
Demographic profile	69
Population by area remoteness	70
Australian Bureau of Statistics Census Data	71
Child related statistics – Northern Territory and Australia.....	72
Teenage births.....	72
Birth weight	73
Infant mortality	74
Deaths by injury	75
Education outcomes	75
Performance on the Australian Early Development Index (AEDI)	76
Alcohol consumption	78
Conclusion.....	78
CHAPTER 3: An integrated framework for child safety and wellbeing in the Northern Territory	81
Child protection reform efforts	81
The Northern Territory context – potential for a different approach.....	82
Ecological, developmental and population-based public health approaches	86
Why go beyond public health?	90
An integrated framework for protecting children	91
Summary.....	95

CHAPTER 4: Responding to the particular needs of Aboriginal children..... 99

Introduction	99
A selective history of colonisation and policy relating to Aboriginal children in the Northern Territory	100
Recent inquiries addressing Aboriginal child abuse and neglect and systems responses.....	108
Determinants of social and emotional wellbeing for Aboriginal children and families	110
The Inquiry's observations	112
Housing	113
Education for Aboriginal children	113
Nutrition	114
Substance misuse.....	114
Violence	114
Socioeconomic disadvantage and employment	114
Grief and loss	115
Parenting.....	115
Recent developments and their impact.....	115
Self-determination and cultural capital	116
The need for a different approach	116
Model for participation of Aboriginal people in decision making in the field of child protection	118
Cultural competence.....	122
Aboriginal controlled child welfare services in Australia	122
The case for an Aboriginal controlled child care agency or agencies.....	124
Establishing an Aboriginal Children and Families Peak body in the Northern Territory.....	130
The Aboriginal Child Placement Principle and its application.....	131

CHAPTER 5: The Northern Territory child protection system, 2010..... 139

Overview	139
Universal preventative initiatives to support all families and children	141
Universal services	142
Early intervention services targeted to vulnerable families and children	143
Community education	143
Family Support.....	144
Targeted services and programs for 'at-risk' families and children	145
Differential Response Framework.....	145
The statutory system	146
Care and Protection Services	146
Out of Home Care Placements.....	150
Therapeutic interventions.....	152
Coordination	154
Data on statutory child protection services in the Northern Territory.....	154
Data on intake and investigation in the Northern Territory	155
Children on care and protection orders 2008-09.....	162
Children in out of home care 2008-09	163
Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Children	164
Intake data relating to Aboriginal status.....	164
The placement of Aboriginal children in out of home care	169

CHAPTER 6: Enhancing the service system to support families in the Northern Territory	175
The causes and consequences of child abuse and neglect	175
Protective and risk factors	176
The impacts of risk and protective factors on parenting	182
The impact of child maltreatment on children and young people	184
Service components.....	186
Universal supports and services	190
Secondary and tertiary targeted services and supports for children, families and communities	200
Features of current service provision in the Northern Territory	220
Conclusion.....	230
CHAPTER 7: The Statutory Intervention Process, Part 1 – Intake and Investigation .	233
Introduction	233
Intake	233
Statutory basis for the intake function	233
Background to and description of centralised intake	234
The intake process	235
Intake and response performance data	236
Number of matters processed to ‘outcome’ within the 24 hour target.....	236
Number of child protection matters awaiting allocation for investigation	237
‘Outcome’ risk classifications.....	239
Other ‘outcome’ categories	239
Response timeliness	241
The Interim Progress Report on Intake and Response Processes	242
Summary of findings	243
The Case of Baby BM	245
Written and oral submissions on intake and response services.....	246
Critical issues relating to the effectiveness of and confidence in Central Intake	254
Differences of opinion over the risk classifications made by Central Intake.....	254
Cumulative harm	258
Potential harm	261
Protecting unborn infants and neonates at risk	262
Assessment based on ability to respond	263
The role of the courts	264
Lack of feedback to notifiers.....	264
Centralised versus decentralised intake.....	266
Formal investigation of child protection ‘outcomes’	268
Who undertakes the investigations?.....	269
Police and the Child Abuse Taskforce	270
Other issues involving the police and child protection	272
Inappropriate practice relating to investigations	273
New assessment instrumentation	274
Consultation with notifiers	275
Engagement with family	276
Qualifications and experience of staff	277
The focus on substantiation rather than the needs of children and families	278
Unnecessarily restrictive legislation.....	278
Developing a model of intake, investigation and assessment for the Northern Territory	278
Integrating intake, assessment and investigation into child protection services	281
Universal services available to all children and families (level 1).....	281
Services and supports for vulnerable and high-risk children and families (levels 2-3)	282
Children requiring statutory intervention for their protection (levels 4 & 5)	284

CHAPTER 8: The statutory intervention process, Part 2 – Interventions for protected children and young people	291
Differential response	291
Referrals	292
What would a robust differential response for Family Support cases look like?	293
Lack of response for families in need.....	294
Requirements for change	295
Case-management	296
Ongoing risk management	300
Aboriginal Family Group Conferencing	302
Quality control	304
Culturally appropriate decisions and practice standards	304
Cutting corners.....	305
Child not sighted during investigations.....	305
Poor use of interagency options	306
Court orders and legal matters	306
Child protection practice in remote communities	307
Service responses for at-risk and protected young people.....	308
The need for early intervention	309
Lack of responsiveness	309
Inappropriate service responses.....	310
Shortage of service options	311
Partially funded specialist services	312
Life education needs of young people	313
Young people in regional offices	313
Positive youth-related initiatives	313
Other key youth-related initiatives of NTFC.....	314
Youth services strategy	315
CHAPTER 9: Out of home care	319
Introduction	319
Principles for OOHC	322
A Picture of OOHC in the Northern Territory	324
Aboriginal children.....	325
Growing demand	328
Admissions and Discharges.....	328
Types of care	330
Home based care	330
Residential care.....	332
Distribution of children in OOHC	333
Capacity of home based care.....	335
Capacity of residential care (non-home based)	337
Challenges and practice issues.....	340
Case management	340
Community visitor programs	345
Payment of carers	346
Recruitment, assessment, training and support of carers	349
Standards in out of home care.....	355
Kinship care	357
Reunification	361
High needs children and young people.....	364
Children with disabilities.....	367
Interstate transfers.....	369
Allegations of abuse in care	371
Outsourcing OOHC	374

VOLUME 2

CHAPTER 10: Legislation, the courts and related practice.....	381
Statutory basis	381
Principles.....	381
Principles applying to Aboriginal children and young people	382
Legal issues arising in submissions and forums	383
Daily care and control	383
Standard of care provided under protection orders	385
Lack of regulations for some mediation conferences	387
Court orders for child-parent contact	390
Undertakings to the Court	391
Reunification and permanency planning	392
Legal representation for a child	395
Monitoring children in care	397
Application for provisional protection	399
Information to parents	399
Parental consent	400
Parental consent and 'Family Way' placements	401
Lapsed orders.....	404
Involvement in case planning	405
Removal of children under orders from the Northern Territory	406
Preparation and provision of care plans to parents.....	407
Amalgamation of Family Matters jurisdiction (Local Court) and Youth Justice Court	408
Children and young people in the criminal justice system	409
Protecting unborn children	410
CHAPTER 11: Interagency Collaboration.....	413
Introduction	413
The Case for interagency collaboration.....	413
National initiatives which focus on information sharing and collaboration.....	414
Interagency issues raised by Northern Territory inquiries, investigations and other initiatives ...	418
Interagency issues identified in submissions	425
Examples of interagency collaboration	434
The gap between intention and practice	435
Legislative provisions around cooperation and collaboration	435
The legislative framework for information sharing.....	438
Legislative changes for improving communication	444
The development of interagency guidelines.....	446
Proposed reforms around the delivery of child protection services and interagency collaboration ...	448
Dual pathway referral and assessment	449
Community Child Safety and Wellbeing (CCSW) Teams.....	451
Expansion of the scope of the integrated children and family centres.....	453
Development of further children and family centres in areas of need.....	455
Hospital based interagency Child Safety and Wellbeing teams	455
Enhancing the child safety and wellbeing roles of other government agencies and personnel	460
CHAPTER 12: Workforce	465
Introduction	465
Current Workforce Data	468
Organisational, staff structure/ function and workforce numbers	471
Case loads	473
Recruitment and retention	476
Workforce support.....	477
Issues raised in Submissions and Hearings	478
Work structure and environment	478
Improving work structure and environment.....	481
Work conditions and practice demands	483
Staffing: type, turnover, recruitment and retention	487
The need for work re-design.....	491
Induction and training	494
Supporting induction and training	497
Industrial issues and occupational health and safety	498
Support, supervision and mentoring	502
Aboriginal Service Sector	507

CHAPTER 13: Oversight, accountability and review	515
Introduction	515
Structures and mechanisms for monitoring the system	516
Office of the Children’s Commissioner.....	517
The Ombudsman	523
The Coroner	524
External oversight	524
The Child Deaths Review and Prevention Committee	525
The NTFC Advisory Council	525
Consulting with children and young people in care.....	526
Community visitor program	527
Internal NTFC quality control and review measures	529
Care and Protection Quality Sub-Committee.....	529
Complaints process.....	530
Appeals process	531
Advice and support services for families involved with NTFC.....	532
Models of accountability.....	533
CHAPTER 14: The way forward	539
Introduction	539
Scope of the proposed reforms	539
Urgency ratings	540
The next steps.....	541
NTFC as a department in its own right.....	541
The processes of implementation.....	543
Articulation of a response.....	543
A planning, coordination and implementation unit.....	543
Development of a strategic plan to drive the reforms.....	544
Development of an action plan within NTFC	547
Determination of monitoring and oversight functions	548
Conclusion.....	549
References	553
Appendices
Appendix 1.1: Biographies of Board of Inquiry co-chairs.....	579
Appendix 1.2: Instrument of Appointment - Board of Inquiry.....	581
Appendix 1.3: Northern Territory Government Media Release - Child Protection Inquiry Announced - 11.11.09	583
Appendix 1.4: Example newspaper advertisement calling for submissions.....	586
Appendix 1.5: List of written submissions to the Child Protection Inquiry	587
Appendix 1.6: List of contributors to the Child Protection Inquiry	591
Appendix 1.7: Reference group for the Child Protection Inquiry	595
Appendix 1.8: Remote Northern Territory communities and town camps visited by the Child Protection Inquiry.....	596
Appendix 2.1: Australian Bureau of Statistics Census Data Northern Territory and Australia	597
Appendix 4.1: Summary of recent inquiry reports relevant to Aboriginal children’s safety and wellbeing.....	603
Appendix 5.1: Mapping of NTFC Child Protection Services.....	614
Appendix 6.1: Services and Supports in the Northern Territory	615
Appendix 6.2: Programs and models from Australia and Overseas	645
Appendix 7.1: Intake Event Flow Chart	662
Appendix 7.2: Intake, investigation and assessment - Background Paper, Australian Institute of Family Studies, Melbourne 2010	663
Appendix 8.1: Family decision making and mediation models	705